

Unit 1: Eduardo Saves a Home

Eduardo lived in Brazil.
He worked for a building company.
The company tore down old houses.
The company built new houses.
Teresa was poor. She lived in an old house.
“This house is old,” the company said.
“We must tear it down!”
Eduardo went to tear down Teresa’s house.
Teresa cried, “Please don’t tear my house down!”
Eduardo was poor, too.
He went away.
He lost his job.
The mayor read about Eduardo and Teresa in the newspaper.
The mayor gave Teresa money.
Teresa kept her house.
Eduardo found a new job.

Regular Verbs in Past

live	lived
work	worked
cry	cried

Irregular Verbs in Past

tear down	tore down
build	built
is	was
say	said
go	went
lose	lost
read	read
give	gave
find	found

4A

Fill in the Blanks (with past verbs missing)

Eduardo _____ in Brazil.

He _____ for a building company.

The company _____ down old houses.

The company _____ new houses.

Teresa _____ poor. She _____ in an old house.

“This house is old,” the company _____,

“We must tear it down!”

Eduardo _____ to tear down Teresa’s house.

Teresa _____, “Please don’t tear my house down!”

Eduardo _____ poor, too.

He _____ away.

He _____ his job.

The mayor _____ about Eduardo and Teresa in the newspaper.

The mayor _____ Teresa money.

Teresa _____ her house.

Eduardo _____ a new job.

Fill in the Blanks (with past verbs missing)

4B

Eduardo _____ in Brazil.

He _____ for a building company.

The company _____ down old houses.

The company _____ new houses.

Teresa _____ poor. She _____ in an old house.

“This house is old,” the company _____.

“We must tear it down!”

Eduardo _____ to tear down Teresa’s house.

Teresa _____, “Please don’t tear my house down!”

Eduardo _____ poor, too.

He _____ away.

He _____ his job.

The mayor _____ about Eduardo and Teresa in the newspaper.

The mayor _____ Teresa money.

Teresa _____ her house.

Eduardo _____ a new job.