

Unit 7: Living in the Library

Steven was a student at New York University.

He was poor.

He paid for university tuition.

He paid for books.

Rent in New York City was very expensive.

So Steven lived in the university library.

He slept on four chairs in the library.

He washed his clothes in the library bathroom.

He ate crackers and drank orange juice.

Steven was a good student and a good writer.

He knew many things about life.

On the Internet, Steven writes about his life.

Many people read about Steven's life.

Many people helped him.

The university found a room for him.

Steven liked his new life.

Regular Verbs in Past

pay paid

live lived

wash washed

help helped like liked

Irregular Verbs in Past

be was sleep slept

eat ate

drink drank

know knew

write wrote

read read

find found

4A

Fill in the Blanks (with past verbs missing)

Steven _____ a student at New York University.

He _____ poor.

He _____ for university tuition.

He _____ for books.

Rent in New York City _____ very expensive.

So Steven _____ in the university library.

He _____ on four chairs in the library.

He _____ his clothes in the library bathroom.

He _____ crackers and _____ orange juice.

Steven _____ a good student and a good writer.

He _____ many things about life.

On the Internet, Steven _____ about his life.

Many people _____ about Steven's life.

Many people _____ him.

The university _____ a room for him.

Steven _____ his new life.

Fill in the Blanks (with past verbs missing)

4B

Steven _____ a student at New York University.

He _____ poor.

He _____ for university tuition.

He _____ for books.

Rent in New York City _____ very expensive.

So Steven _____ in the university library.

He _____ on four chairs in the library.

He _____ his clothes in the library bathroom.

He _____ crackers and _____ orange juice.

Steven _____ a good student and a good writer.

He _____ many things about life.

On the Internet, Steven _____ about his life.

Many people _____ about Steven's life.

Many people _____ him.

The university _____ a room for him.

Steven _____ his new life.